Awards and Achievements

Ploomie Lewis's musical innovation was brought to life with the founding of the band The Revolution of St. Vincent in the early 1970s. This was a pivotal moment in his career, and among their most distinguished work is the song 'The Little You Say,' a tropical Caribbean funk single that swiftly became one of the most sought-after 45s of its genre.

IRAWMA

Ploomie Lewis was honored with a Lifetime Achievement award at the 34th International Reggae & World Music Awards (IRAWMA), recognizing his remarkable contributions to the music industry over 40 years.

Bassman Extraordinaire

Lewis was a musical sensation to hear and see as he dominated the stage all over St. Vincent and the Grenadines, inspiring other musicians. A skilled musician who has mastered many styles of music, Lewis plays both the bass guitar and steel drums and moves easily through genres of Pop, Jazz, Soca, Fusion, Reggae, R&B, and his own sound, which he calls "Modungo."
